Leader's Guidelines for handling animal approval forms

(New guidelines that correspond to Animal Approval Forms revised 12-1-05)

	* '	chese terms Bovine (cattle) Caprine (Goat) Cavy (guinea pig)	Camelid (Llama/alpaca) Canine (dog) Poultry
	Verify 4-H Age Complete name and address Youth's name appears on front and back 4-H Leader/Advisor signs on the line immediately after last animal listed Animal's registered name/pet name
	<ul> <li>There is some form of identification # in proper column(s)</li> <li>If animal has both an ear tag and a microchip number, there is a separate column for each.</li> <li>Registration number (if not a grade animal) should be entered</li> <li>If registration has not been received – supply sire and dam's numbers</li> <li>Grade Horse: Use Coggins Certification or a good photo as I.D.</li> <li>Dairy animals should have a registration # unless that breed registry does not require such</li> <li>Small animals, pets are identified by a good photo or markings are described in I.D. columns</li> </ul>
	Show class—corresponds with date of birth  Date of Ownership or Lease - If a registered animal is not registered in the child's name, i.e. "Farm Name" then the animal needs to be on a lease form.
	Lease form must be submitted at same time  If Bred & Owned (owned mother when this animal was born) – some shows have special awards for Bred & Owned and use this to enter into class
	Must be at the County Extension office by JUNE 30th. ESE Horse, April 1; ESE Dairy, May 1; Working Steer, May 1		