

Maine Agricultural Mediation Program (MAMP) Call for Artists - 2025 Maine Agricultural Calendar

The Maine Agricultural Mediation Program (MAMP) invites Maine-based artists to submit works for next year's annual calendar on or before May 20th of this year - anything received after this annual deadline date will be considered for next year's calendar (rolling submission). *Mediation is a voluntary and confidential process for resolving disputes where a neutral intermediary helps conflicting parties have a conversation.*¹ Our mediation program offers conflict resolution support to the wide array of agricultural communities across Maine and is a service of the University of Maine Cooperative Extension and is funded by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA).

The theme of the calendar is an appreciation of nurturing the land, growing food, and fishing loosely defined as “farming and tending to the land and sea throughout the seasons.”
