

CRANBERRY LANGUAGE ARTS

Let's Pretend

- 1) Imagine you are a cranberry hanging on an upright. It is the first week of October and harvest time is here. What are you thinking about? Do you want to be harvested wet or dry? Why?
- 2) Imagine yourself working in this picture of a cranberry wet-harvest. What time of day do you imagine it might be? How long have you been working? Describe how you feel.
- 3) You are a cranberry grower who just got done with the harvest. Your friends want you to describe what it was like. Think of the steps involved and list them.

Make an Acrostic using one of the following words:

CRANBERRY, JUICE, BLOSSOM, GROWER, HARVEST, OCTOBER

Berry Fun

Example:

Happy
Angelic Respectful
Voracious
Electrifying
Super-duper Talented

- 1) What can you do with a cranberry?
- 2) What does a cranberry remind you of?
- 3) Think about cranberries and then write your own ideas. A cranberry is....

as round as _____

as red as _____

as hard as _____

as shiny as _____

as bright as _____

as cute as _____

as _____ as _____

Prepared by Charles Armstrong, Cranberry Professional, University of Maine Cooperative Extension. © 2006

Published and distributed in furtherance of Acts of Congress of May 8 and June 30, 1914, by the University of Maine Cooperative Extension, the Land Grant University of the state of Maine and the U.S. Department of Agriculture cooperating. Cooperative Extension and other agencies of the U.S.D.A. provide equal opportunities in programs and employment. 08/06