The commentary, or narration, describes the outfit you are wearing or the item you are showing to the audience. It lets them know more about you and your project. Your outfit comes alive on you, so make the most of your moment in the spotlight!

Describe your outfit from the outside-in (jacket before blouse) and from top to bottom (blouse then pants). Here is a list of ideas to help you write your commentary:

Name:
Description: (You can take some clues from the description on pattern envelope back)
  - include project/garment features:
    Example: yoke, pockets, sleeves, collar, etc.
  - use descriptive words:
    Example: short sleeves, contrasting yoke, top-stitched hem, etc.
  - tell why you selected the garment, or where you can wear it most (school, church, outdoors, sports events, outings, parties.)

Color(s): Use descriptive adjectives: soft, bright, muted
Fiber(s): Example: cotton, wool, polyester, polyester/cotton blend
Accessories: Example: shoes, belt, scarf, necklace, hat

Years in 4-H Clothing Project:
Leader’s name and club name:

New skills learned in this project:

Successes or highlights in project:

If there is time, include school you attend and your hobbies/interests:

Practice reading the narrative aloud and time it. It should last only 30-45 seconds.
