

I love 4-H because...

...

Stay connected all year long with Hancock County 4-H!

BINGO

Directions: Be sure to document your participation by registering and showing up for events.

Your club leader, Leah, or Andrea are the ones who can initial your card. Be sure to find one of them at the event. Once we verify your attendance, we will initial your card.

Staff

4-H Youth Development

Carla Scocchi, 4-H Youth Development Professional

Email: carla.scocchi@maine.edu

Leah McCluskey, 4-H Community Education Assistant

Email: leah.mccluskey@maine.edu

Andrea Mahoney, 4-H Administrative Specialist

Email: andrea.mahoney@maine.edu

Once you have completed a Bingo, please stop by the Cooperative Extension Hancock County office to receive a scratch-off card!

Once your prize is revealed, your prize will be ordered.

Once you complete your first Bingo, keep going! The number of squares you complete will determine your level of prize. Be sure to keep your Bingo card in a safe place!

We hope you have a wonderful year in Hancock County 4-H!

Stay connected all year long with Hancock County 4-H!

BINGO

Tell us why you love 4-H on the back	Learn the 4-H pledge and show a staff member or leader	Submit a completed 4-H project record (September)	Attend Maine 4-H Days at Windsor Fairgrounds (July)	Attend Cloverfest (October)
Participate in public speaking (Jan-April)	Visit the Extension Office and meet our team!	Sell a steer ticket (June - August)	Participate in the newsletter scavenger hunt (monthly)	Participate in 4-H Page Day (August-March) OR attend a Leaders Meeting (monthly)
Go to a county fair!	Talk to staff about available scholarships. (camps, college, CWF)		Sign up & attend a 4-H Summer Learning Series workshop (summer)	Bring a friend to a 4-H event
Go to a 4-H workshop at the Ellsworth library or Extension office (monthly)	Tell a 4-H staff member about a new skill you learned	Sew a project for Style Revue or come cheer on a 4-H friend! (spring)	Submit a project to the 4-H Exhibit Hall at the Blue Hill Fair (August)	Come to June Jamboree!
Volunteer at a 4-H event	Have a parent follow our Hancock County Facebook Page	Read a newsletter and tell us your favorite part	Go to Tractor Supply during Paper Clover-send us a picture in front of the 4-H table! (fall & spring)	Reenroll for the 2023-2024 year! (October)