GUIDELINES

*Applications will be considered as they are submitted, through the spring and summer, or until available funds run out. Be sure to indicate in your application what date scholarship funds are required by the program.

Decisions will be made by the Knox-Lincoln Scholarship Committee.

Amount of scholarship will be determined by amount available and the number of qualified applicants.

Scholarship recipients will be asked to sign a Recipient Contract of Agreement, which will be sent at the time the funds are awarded. To fulfill this agreement, the member must write an article relating his/her experiences for the Knox-Lincoln 4-H Newsletter, OR agree to share some of his/her experiences pertaining to this scholarship in a presentation at a Knox-Lincoln County 4-H event in the upcoming year, including the annual Achievement Celebration in the fall. Failure to fulfill this agreement may make the member ineligible for future scholarships offered by KLLA.

Camps/Programs include, but not exclusive to: 4-H National Trips (4-H National Congress and National Conference, Ignite by 4-H), summer camps (including Tanglewood, Blueberry Cove, Bryant Pond, and Greenland Point 4-H Camps), science camps, animal camps, exchange programs, conferences, school programs.

Preference will be given to applicants attending 4-H-sponsored Programs and Camps.

Camps/Programs, which are not in keeping with the University of Maine Non-Discrimination Policy (see below), are not eligible for this scholarship.
