Through the generosity and foresight of Robert Oxton, a trust fund has been established to support 4-H youth development programs and activities in Knox and Lincoln Counties. The amount of funds available annually is dependent on the performance of the trust's investments in a given year. Grants will be awarded for the following purposes:

Leadership
Youth Development
Special Programs

Deadline for completed applications: January 31 of the calendar year in which the funds are needed

Applications submitted during other times of the year may be considered by the Oxton Trust Committee, but funds available will be more limited.

Applications are available through the Knox-Lincoln Cooperative Extension office in Waldoboro, Maine.

I, the undersigned am applying for funds from the Oxton Trust to support youth development in Knox and or Lincoln Counties:
