

March 30 Daily Maine Farmer Zoom

7 pm 14 folks online

Please note: we are moving to a once a week format with our next session on Friday, April 3rd at 7 pm. We will be pulling together information to help farmers with do it yourself alternative direct marketing methods. Including posting on Facebook by taking picture of price list, Google doc for pre-order, apps for online ordering and whatever other methods we find.

From Donna Coffin : Erica, can you hear ok?

From Erica : So sorry, by computer is buffering and you guys are all sounding garbled. I'll try to connect again another night!

From Jason Lilley : Erica, you might be able to hear us better if you call too.

From anne.lichtenwalner : You can use the "raise hand" option, too!

From Gary.Fish : once a week

From Julia Jones : I'm being called to the dinner table. Thank you, Donna for arranging the meeting! Meeting less is ok with me if that's a better fit for farmers and Extension.
