

Tree Fruit Quiz

1. A good fruit tree site should have...
2. What is the fewest number of trees you need to have if you want fruit from your current small orchard: A McIntosh apple, a Red Haven peach, and a Shiro Japanese plum? You can't count on neighbors' trees for pollination.
3. To control the height of a tree, you should (choose all correct answers)
  - A choose the correct rootstock
  - B plant the tree deeper
  - C prune heavily, especially with heading cuts
  - D prune judiciously with thinning cuts
4. True or False. A European plum is a good cross for a Japanese plum.
5. True or False. A McIntosh apple can pollinate another McIntosh.
6. When and how should fruit trees be planted?
7. The graft union should be planted _____ inches above the soil line.
8. True or False. Raking up fallen fruit and leaves on a regular basis has no effect on pest and disease management.
9. True or False. Fall frosts tend to cause more damage than spring frosts on tree fruits.